Dec. theme: Light within the darkness

Dec. 7: “The Places that Scare Us”

Rev. Fa Jun

As we travel deeper into the dark part of the year, people around the world are gathering close their families and friends to find warmth during the cold of winter. During dark times, our fears can arise, and it is no coincidence that the story of Jesus Christ, the “Light of the World” is said to begin in the depth of winter. What resources can we find to deal with our own fears, with the parts of ourselves that scare us, with the dangers present in our wild modern world? Come gather close with us to explore these questions and answers together.

Dec. 14: “Joy Comes with the Night”

Rev. Christy Baker

Even through a time of grief and transition, I found joy in dance, music and the vast stars in the sky. Such joy, says Martin Buber, is “the beating heart of the universe”. Come join us for this third Sunday of Advent even if your heart is in a place of weeping to hear the promise that, in the morning, or maybe with night, there can be “joy to the fishes in the deep blue sea, joy to you and me.”

Dec. 21: Winter Solstice Festival of Lights – intergenerational

Rev. Fa Jun

At the winter solstice, the nights are longest and days are shortest. During this time, we have an opportunity to bring forth our own light from within to illuminate the dark. This special ceremony will involve music, candles and warm hearts! Hope to see you there!

Dec. 28: New Years “Revolution” (creating changes that last)

Rev. Fa Jun

Have you ever tried making a new years resolution? Many of us have sadly learned that the best laid plans often fall back into familiar habits after a few weeks? Why is change so hard, and is there anything we can do to make it easier? Ancient traditions and modern psychologists have found a few best practices with which to maximize healthy change that LASTS. Come ready to make resolutions for the new year, which you are ready to see stick, and change your world for the better!

Special Event!

Dec. 7: 12:30-2pm UU Principles in Practice

Rev. Fa Jun

Are you new to UU and want to find out more about our basic tenets? Are you a long-term associate with Unitarianism or Universalism ready to deepen your understanding with others? This monthly class will dive into our 7 basic principles and explore their meaning in our real lives. What do ancient spiritual and religious sources say about these principles? What does scientific research say? How can these 7 basic ideas help us to live fuller and happier lives? These questions will all be explored through a presentation, questions, and group discussion.

Come yourself, bring a friend, bring your questions and your wisdom for an afternoon of deepening our personal spirituality together.

Caring Committee Info

Here's a brief reminder of a few of the activities that our Caring Committee volunteers help coordinate:

Ann Campbell coordinates arranging transportation for doctor's appointments, Sunday services and other Fellowship functions, and transportation in case of an emergency. Contact Ann at 408-374-8844 or annbcampbell@gmail.com if you're in need of transportation.

Maggi Benson coordinates visits by Fellowship members to the home bound to bring news of Fellowship activities and a little good cheer. Contact Maggi at 408-559-5229 or maggibe@gmail.com if you or someone you know would like a home visit.

Contact either Maggi or Ann if you would like to volunteer to provide transportation or home visits when needed.

We are Grateful!

As you consider year-end donations to the nonprofits that you support at this time of year, please remember to include UUFLG in your considerations.

This is an exciting time to be a member and friend of the Fellowship as we experience Sunday services that are both joyful and thoughtful at the same time with our new minister Rev. Fa Jun. Our children's program is welcoming our children and new families with engaging programs and experienced teachers. Social action is involving us with issues on climate change and environmental protection, as well as supporting local charities. We are improving the safety of our building and grounds and catching up on deferred maintenance and looking for ways to make our facilities more attractive. Best of all, we're a shared community that sustains one another on our life's journeys with caring and love.

We couldn't accomplish all that we do without your financial support and we thank you for your generosity.

Best wishes for the holidays from the Finance Committee.

Thank you for wearing your name tag on Sunday mornings, and for parking on the street when possible to make room for our newcomers.

Dollars and Cans

The November Share the Plate collected $171.31 for the Low-Income Self-Help Center in San Jose. Two large boxes of groceries from our ongoing collection for Sacred Heart Community Service were delivered on Nov. 17, in time to go into some of the hundreds of Thanksgiving food boxes they filled.

UUFLG's annual food drive for Second Harvest Food Bank begins Nov. 30 and continues through Dec. 14. As you are shopping for holiday meals, remember to add a few extra cans to your cart for the many struggling families and seniors who depend on Food Bank assistance. If possible, have your children help choose, buy, and bring in some items for the food drive collection box in the UUFLG hallway, moving their focus from "what they want for Christmas" to how they can help others during this holiday season.

Most needed foods are:

- tuna or canned meat
- peanut butter
- soup, stew, chili
- canned foods with pop-top lids
- canned fruits packed in juice
- low-sodium canned vegetables
- canned tomatoes/ tomato sauce
- low-sugar cereals

Cash/check donations are also very welcome; put these in the envelope in the collection box or give them to Jim Beebe or Coralee Linton.
