Town Hall Meeting – Refreshing our sense of vision & mission

Today Sun., 3/25, 12-1:30p – Some of us participated in a spiritual cafe to brainstorm how we see ourselves, who we serve, and what are some resonant ways to represent this in the world through our website, orders of service and other materials. Today we aim to complete this process of capturing in brief words the essence of our Values and our Community spirit – to help guide us in the work we'll do in the years to come. Members are encouraged to participate! –UUFLG Board & Rev. Fa Jun

"Easter Fool's Day" Sun., 4/1, 10:30-11:30a – Since this year Easter and April Fools' Day fall on the same date, we'll use this opportunity to explore how fear of foolishness and failure makes it harder for us to change and grow. Specifically, we'll see how the teachings of Christ have often been arrested at a certain stage of religious experience and how this may be harming our world. Most importantly, we'll learn what to do about it! Come learn how to be a fool with us so that you may be revitalized! –Rev. Fa Jun

"Flower Communion" Sun., 4/8, 10:30-11:30a – Each year, UUs across the nation celebrate Flower Communion, a ritual that honors beauty, uniqueness, diversity and community. This morning, Karen O'Brien and Lynn Golbetz will facilitate Flower Communion through poetry, meditation and song. If you are able, please bring one or more flowers to the service. These will decorate the chancel, and each of us will choose one to take home, symbolizing the sharing of our diverse beauty.
