Next Sunday "The King/Gandhi Legacy: A Contemplation on Nonviolence"

Sun, 1/13, 1030a Every year in the US, we celebrate the work of Martin Luther King, Jr. and the dignity of the ideals he espoused. But are these ideals still relevant in the situation that faces us? Is the type of non-violent social change proposed by Tolstoy, Gandhi, and King something that can stand firm amidst the challenges of our time? Come explore new perspectives on these questions. -Rev. Fa Jun Monthly Meditation Sun, 1/13, 1230-130p - Join us for our monthly meditation group, meeting for community, practice tips, and a little peace and quiet. We'll have a brief instructional period, sit for 20 minutes in quiet together then have a time for sharing and Q&A. We'll finish with another short sitting period. Whether an advanced meditator or just starting today, this is a wonderful opportunity to experience community support and learn practical tips, leading to deeper relaxation and alertness.

Upcoming Leadership Retreat

Sat., 1/26, 1-4p

Calling all community leaders! Members of committees, volunteers for working groups, and board members, please join us for our second Saturday leadership retreat.

The first retreat, held in September 2018, generated a great list of ideas. We'll provide updates on some of these: A refreshed democratic decision-making process for our congregation, a new Stewardship Working Group, a reinstated UU Minute, a listing of committee contacts in our directory, and more.

We'll also move forward on ways to further improve the functioning and interconnection of our committees and board, so we can continue moving toward our most important Fellowship goals.

This is a wonderful opportunity to engage in deep discussions of our purpose and process, and just to spend time together.
