Poetry Service This Sunday, 3/17, 1030a Join us for a poetry service in celebration of love in all its many splendored forms. Spring is nigh, birds are nesting, the air is softening. And your heart? Read to us your favorite poems of love (however that speaks to you), written by yourself or another. Share with us the words that make your heart sing (or that make you ache). OR if you just aren't feeling the love, and would rather celebrate International Women's Day, bring us poetry in celebration! Led by Alison Hurwitz and Karen O'Brien.

March Shared Plate: IWC's Global Initiative for Women's Leadership Fund This Sunday, the offertory (except for checks and envelopes marked "pledge") will go to the International Women's Convocation's Global Initiative for Women's Leadership (GIWL). GIWL supports programs that provide culturally sensitive leadership training, networking opportunities and resources, as well as build capacity for longterm success. Its training programs are built by women, ready to make equality, empowerment, and community their priority, passion, and action. GIWL focuses on a long-range vision to build capacities; strengthen women's community, civil, business, and political participation; and advance gender equity. Next Environmental Justice Class 3/24, 1215-215p Join the "Our Place in the Web of Life" classes, part of UUFLG's Green Sanctuary program. This collaborative, interactive course will help us learn new practices and skills to create a more just and sustainable world. Each class builds on the prior ones so attend as many as possible. Children are encouraged to attend, and there's a light lunch. Our last two classes are on 4/7 & 4/14. Sign-up is in the foyer or email Robb Stolberg at bigbrownbat@yahoo.com.

Annual Giving Campaign Update Our Annual Giving Campaign is officially over with only two-thirds of the goal reached. Finance Committee members will reach out to members and friends who have yet to pledge. At the end of this process, the Finance Committee will present an amended budget to the Board. All members and friends are needed to participate in order to keep the Fellowship viable.

Come One, Come All! Friday, 3/22, 730p
Roy Zimmerman Concert @ UUFLG!
Doors Open 7p

In the current national nightmare, we need to laugh. And we need to hope. Roy Zimmerman's signature blend of heart and hilarity has never been more necessary. RiZeUp is 90 minutes of Roy's original songs, a funny and forceful affirmation of peace and social justice. His songs have been heard on HBO and Showtime, and his videos have garnered tens of millions of views. He has recorded for Warner/Reprise Records, and shared stages with Bill Maher, Ellen DeGeneres, Holly Near, Robin Williams, Arlo Guthrie, John Oliver, Kate Clinton and George Carlin. Share this invitation. Part of the proceeds benefit our Fellowship! Admission is $20 or pay what you can. Wine and beer will be available for a donation, plus appetizers. Come out for a fun night!
