The Mother

May 5 – “In Praise of the Great Mother”

Throughout history, earth's cultures have honored the Goddess in the form of the Great Mother. In today's service, we'll explore how to invoke Her power from both within and without. When we need regeneration, when we need nurturance, when we need connection, and yes, when we need protective wrath, the Great Mother is our ally. Join us for a cross-cultural exploration of Her power and practices. –Rev. Fa Jun

May 12 – Spiritual Cafe: Mothers

In the matters of mothers, our culture swings from the saccharine sentimentality of Mother's Day to laying blame for every shortcoming imaginable at the maternal feet. Everyone has a mother; we are the same in this. But the story of every mother and child is different. Some stories have a great deal of turbulence in them, though every story is a story of gifts. What is your story? We will explore this topic in small group discussions. This will be a lay led service.

May 19 – “Heal Trauma, Heal the World”

It has been said that, “hurt people are the ones who hurt people,” and many have found that it is true. In the esoteric aspects of many religions it is taught that our real nature is open, loving, and playful, and it is only because we are suffering (i.e. “traumatized”) that we become selfish, rigid, or harmful. More and more, our world is becoming “trauma-informed” as to how healing these wounds of the mind and heart can untangle the knots of our most toxic and painful patterns, both personally and socially. –Rev. Fa Jun

May 26 – “The Limits of Life-hacking: A Daoist Exploration”

We live in the age of the hacker. Whatever it is, someone can find a way to do it faster, cheaper, more efficiently! But has this brought us any real happiness? Where is the atomic age that was predicted where our machine-based society brought us all more leisure and ease? The ancient practitioners of the Dao had a lot to say about “usefulness” and “efficiency”. This morning, we'll learn a small portion of what it was. –Rev. Fa Jun

Annual Business Meeting

Update from the Board

Greetings, beloved community! Here is a quick update on some of the things your UUFLG governing board has been discussing.

The leadership retreat originally scheduled for the afternoon of Saturday, May 11, will need to be rescheduled, as the building is being rented out that afternoon. A new date will be set shortly.

The annual UUFLG auction is scheduled for May 4, and this is the time to make donations! There are already some great items and activities, and Robb and Alison as auctioneers are not to be missed!

The RE classes would welcome more volunteers. You don't have to be a current parent of a young person to volunteer! Contact Sarah Ditzler if you are interested.

A state law requires that all our employees complete sexual harassment prevention training by January 1, 2020. Our insurance company offers this training online, and we will be requesting our employees to complete it.

If you would like more information on the board's doings, you can access the full minutes of our meetings at the UUFLG website (click Administration, then Administration and Governance, then Board of Trustees Minutes). They will always be one month behind, as we do not post them till they are officially approved, and we approve each month's minutes at the next month's meeting. You are also welcome to attend the meetings, which are held the second Tuesday of each month at 7:00 in the office, and to ask your board members questions at any time! At present your trustees are Linda Osborne (president), Karen O'Brien (vice president), Lynn Golbetz (secretary), Rick Roberts (treasurer), and Ron Kirkland (trustee at large).

NAMI of Santa Clara

National Alliance on Mental Illness

This month, the offertory on May 19 (except for checks and envelopes marked "pledge") will go to the National Alliance for Mental Illness of Santa Clara County.

NAMI Santa Clara County offers practical experience, support, education, comfort and understanding to anyone concerned about mental illnesses and their treatment in Santa Clara County. In addition, they work with public organizations, private businesses and the media to increase organizational and personal knowledge of effective ways of treating the illnesses while advocating for increased research and improved services for individuals with mental illness.

NAMI is a nonprofit, grassroots, self-help, support and advocacy organization of consumers, families, and friends of people with severe mental illnesses, such as schizophrenia, schizoaffective disorder, bipolar disorder, major depressive disorder, obsessive-compulsive disorder, panic and other severe and persistent mental illnesses that affect the brain.

Founded nationally in 1975, today NAMI works to achieve equitable services and treatment for more than 15 million Americans living with severe mental illnesses and their families. Hundreds of thousands of volunteers participate in more than one thousand local affiliates and fifty state organizations to provide education and support, combat stigma, support increased funding for research, and advocate for adequate health insurance, housing, rehabilitation, and jobs for people with mental illnesses and their families.

Have you ever wanted to learn to meditate? Join us for our monthly class where meditation is made fun and simple. We'll have basic instruction, a 20-minute sitting practice, and time for questions and reflection. Beginners, intermediates, and advanced sages are all welcome!

Creek Cleanup Sat., May 18, 9 - Noon UUFLG will again be participating in the National River Cleanup Day, this year by cleaning a section of the Los Gatos Creek Trail and the area around the Campbell Percolation Ponds, at 1250 Dell Ave. This is a great family service activity, and one aligned with our Green Sanctuary program. Look for registration details in the Fellowship foyer and in the Weekly Update by April 28.

Please spread the word to family, friends, neighbors and colleagues that we have a venue suitable for recitals, weddings, memorials, parties and more!
