 UUFLG Is Social Action ***

"Honoring the Community of All Life", Sept. 22, 10:30-11:30 am - What would it look like to live in a human society that honored all life? Our UU principles hold dear a "respect for the interconnected web", but does this always inform our other principles, such as valuing democratic processes or encouragement in our personal spiritual path? This morning, we'll experiment with adopting new perspectives and thinking outside the box that we've been given through culture-at-large. We will learn to speak for the unheard voices of the world so that we may truly learn to live in balance. -Rev. Fa Jun, Minister
