The Trickster, Crazy Wisdom & Jesus of Nazareth

One could say that Jesus of Nazareth was many things, but conventional isn't one of them. In the context of wisdom traditions around the world, being transgressive, contrary, or surprising is sometimes the mark of a highly mature being. This Easter, join us online to explore the mythology of the holy trickster and to gain inspiration through reading the life of Christ through this lens. –Rev. Fa Jun, Minister

Although congregants will not attend a service at the Fellowship, it will be streamed via Zoom for remote participation.

UUFLG Parent Support Group

Starting this Thursday, 4/9, Colleen Hamilton, our CYRE Director, is hosting a Zoom meeting for parents, guardians, and anyone experiencing the joys and challenges of having children, teens, and young adults in their lives as we shelter in place. Join to share experiences, tips, and mutual support. If you have questions, contact Colleen at hamiltoncolleen10@gmail.com or simply join her on Zoom.

Dedicated Email

In addition to speaking and using Zoom chat to share joys and concerns during online services, congregants may choose to send an email to joysandconcerns@uuflg.org ahead of time. Simply send a concise, brief message at least an hour ahead of time. Chat and audio are available for real-time sharing.

Beginner Basics

We created a webpage called Zoom Basics with links to quick videos on how to use Zoom, including signup, application download, joining a meeting, using chat, and video and sound setup and control during a meeting. Links for this page are under the Administration menu and on the right column of uuflg.org.

Failing Forward: When the "End of the World" is Actually the Beginning

We can probably all remember a time when it was the "End of the World" for us emotionally, psychologically, financially, or socially. Everything we had built up seemed to be crashing down. With a little bit of luck, though, we may have been able to come through those world-ending times and realize that a new world was beginning. The ancient Greek word 'Apocalypse' means an uncovering, or revelation, so even in the end-times, new things are being discovered and unfolded. Today we'll explore how to make failure a virtue, how to apply resilience and adaptability to our obstacles, and how to rise stronger than ever before. –Rev. Fa Jun, Minister

Annual Giving

Heartfelt thanks if you have already pledged to support our Fellowship. If you have not yet pledged, members of our Finance Committee will be reaching out to understand your intentions and situation.

We offer three ways to pledge.

1. Complete a short online pledge form
2. Send an email to our treasurer Rick Roberts at rickrob095@gmail.com
3. Mail a pledge card to the Fellowship at 15980 Blossom Hill Rd., Los Gatos, CA 95032

A pledge now will be payable between July 1, 2020, and June 30, 2021.

Recognizing this crisis has affected us differently, if you are able to bring this year's pledge up-to-date, this will help our Fellowship during this period without rental income due to social distancing. Please mail checks to the Fellowship. Thank you!

Send announcements to comms@uuflg.org by Tuesday of that week's issue.

Announcements are edited for brevity, clarity, and style.
