Power-With: The Future is Non-Zero

Our current, failing, paradigm on planet Earth is a zero-sum fallacy— thinking that there's only so much to go around, and for some to win, others have to lose. Some call this a "scarcity mindset" and propose that Homo Sapiens can move toward an "abundance mindset" that might just be more accurate. The great advances of our species seem to have come when we've learned to work together. Today we'll explore how we can work together to solve the great challenges before us, and feel into a whole new way of sharing planet Earth. –Rev. Fa Jun, Minister

Zoom remains an option: direct link. Zoom details are on our website and calendar. Contact our service associate to plan UUFLG special announcements, etc.

* For in-person attendance, we continue to follow safety protocols detailed in our Gathering Guidelines.

To share joys and concerns, please send an email to joysandconcerns@uufllg.org with a brief message anytime during the week and before the service begins. You may also share live during the service.

Children & Youth Religious Exploration (CYRE) – Children eleven and under enjoy in-person RE in the fenced courtyard between the front entrance and the deck, where staff provide supervision from 10:45 to 12:15. The exterior door remains open and activities take place outside in the courtyard, weather permitting. Dress your child to be outdoors; at times, we go on circle walks to tend the Harvest for Neighbors garden. Youth aged twelve and up are welcome to join us or attend the service and are also invited to volunteer in a variety of roles around the Fellowship. Contact DRE Colleen Hamilton.

We are grateful for those who help make Sunday Service a special time!

Our invaluable volunteers this Sunday include service associates Mark Ditzler, sound technician Julie Matthews and Zoom host Katie Rall. Our talented staff includes pianist and singer Dave Coldren, religious exploration director Colleen Hamilton and religious exploration teacher Arthur Piersol.

UU Principles in Practice

This class is our quarterly discussion group on our UU Principles and Sources. We took a long break during the deep pandemic there for a moment, but we're back. This session is a great way for those new to UUFLG to get to know us. We'll spend about an hour together online discussing our UU Principles in general as well as how we can apply them to some specific challenges we face right now. Obviously, newcomers are encouraged to attend, but this is also a great chance for long-term UUs to share fellowship with similar-minded folks and generate new insight together. –Rev. Fa Jun

June 5, Sunday, 11am-12pm, In-person & Zoom

Pride and Welcome

Pride occurs each June in the United States to commemorate the Stonewall Riots, which occurred in June of 1969. As a result, many pride events are held during this month to recognize the impact LGBTQIA+ people have had in the world. Pride is the promotion of the self-affirmation, dignity, equality and increased visibility of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer/questioning, intersex and asexual/agender people as a social group. Pride represents the opposition to shame and social stigma and is the predominant outlook that bolsters most LGBTQIA+ rights movements.

UUFLG member Karen Swank-Fitch, with the assistance of Matthew Fitch, will share the history of Pride as well as address how we, as a Welcoming Congregation, can develop our ally-ship to our LGBTQIA+ family and community members.

Send announcements to comms@uuflg.org by 7 pm Tuesday for that week's issue.

Announcements are edited for brevity, clarity and style.
