Ice Cream Social Sunday

Jessie Lane Adams once penned, "Ice cream is happiness condensed." Join us this Sunday for a delightfully delicious ice cream social. We will meet in the sanctuary for a light version of our Sunday Service then adjourn to the West Room for happiness dished up in bowls. Bring your happiness; we will have plenty of ice cream to share.

Zoom remains an option: direct link. Zoom details are on our website and calendar. Contact our service associate to plan UUFLG special announcements, etc.

* For in-person attendance, we continue to follow safety protocols detailed in our Gathering Guidelines.

To share joys and concerns, please send an email to joysandconcerns@uuflg.org with a brief message anytime during the week and before the service begins. You may also share live during the service.

Secret History of the American Revolution

Most of us learned a mythology of the brave struggle our founders endured to bring about America as a beacon of freedom to the world. Some of us have woken up to the missing pieces of that mythological picture, which include things like slavery and genocide. This morning we'll take a look at the principles and actions at the foundation of our nation, and work to get a more realistic understanding of our origins. With this, we can better plot our path forward toward a future more aligned with our stated values. –Rev. Fa Jun, Minister

Save the Date: July 15, Friday, 7pm, In-person

Roy Zimmerman in Concert

Roy Zimmerman, a progressive singer/songwriter returns to UUFLG for what should prove another inspiring and joyous concert.

Roy has brought the sting of satire to the struggle for social justice to stages, screens and airwaves for thirty-odd years. (And they've been thirty~~odd~~ years.) "This Machine" is ninety minutes of Roy's songs, at turns heartfelt and hilarious. It's laughter and encouragement for progressive-minded people who need a lot of both.

With his wife and co-writer Melanie Harby, Roy is celebrating the release of "This Machine: The Best of Roy Zimmerman," a double album set containing their runaway song parody "Vote Him Away (The Liar Tweets Tonight)."

Joni Mitchell says, "Roy's lyrics move beyond poetry and achieve perfection."

Admission is $30. Proceeds will help sustain UUFLG. Doors open at 6:30pm.

Help spread the word: Share show poster with friends and family on social media and via email. Volunteer for a great evening; contact Laurie Roberts.
